We are pleased to announce our next installment of the Breakfast Speaking Series bringing together lessons from the sporting community and the business world. The Planning to Win Foundation is focused on providing the professional athletic field with the ability to create and develop charitable organizations that will benefit local youth.

Our next guest speaker will be NFL strong Safety, Super Bowl Champion and Probowler, Roman Harper. Proceeds will go to Harper's Hope 4*1 Foundation.

$600/Table - $75/Person. For ticket or sponsorship information, please contact info@planningtowinfoundation.org.

ROMAN HARPER

Harpers Hope 4*1

The mission of Harper's Hope 4*1 Foundation is to prepare today's youth for tomorrow's challenges through various educational and extracurricular activities. Harpers Hope embraces partnership opportunities with other programs and organizations that share their mission. If a child cannot read on their grade level as of 1st or 2nd grade, it is nearly impossible to succeed academically for the remainder of life!

ROMAN HARPER

Roman played for the Alabama Crimson Tide football team. He was a four-year letterman, a three-year starter and finished his college football career as one of the best Safeties to ever play at Alabama. As a sophomore, he totaled 114 tackles, second most on the team that season. As a junior, he was a second team All-Southeastern Conference selection. As a senior, he was a first team All-Southeastern Conference selection.

"No matter how small or large the task, ALWAYS autograph your work with excellence."

~ Roman Harper

Roman was drafted in the second round by the New Orleans Saints in 2006. He became a starter that season to round out one of the best Secondaries ever assembled in the NFL. In 2009 and 2010 Roman earned his two Pro Bowl berths. In Super Bowl XLIV, Roman led the Saints with 8 tackles and defeated the Indianapolis Colts 31-17.

In 2014, Roman was signed by the Carolina Panthers. During that season he won numerous awards including NFC defensive player of the week. In week 17 against division rival Atlanta Falcons, Roman recorded 6 tackles, 1 pass defended and a 31-yard pick six.

In 2016, Roman was a key leader for the best Secondary in the NFL knows as "Thieves Ave." The Panthers finished the season with a team record 15 wins and The Thieves lead the NFL with 24 interceptions and six fumble recoveries. As the NFC Champions, Roman and The Thieves played in Super Bowl 50. In 2016 - 2017 Roman returned to the Saints, where he played a leadership role on the defense by mentoring and coaching the Saints' younger Safeties.

All profits go to support Roman Harper's foundation, Harpers Hope 4*1.
